SINCHAO METALS CORP. RETAINS BREAKOUT CAPITAL FOR INVESTOR RELATIONS

The Board of Directors of Sinchao Metals Corp. (TSX.V – SMZ) (the “Company” or “Sinchao”) is pleased to announce that it has retained Mr. Shams Patel of Breakout Capital Corp of Vancouver, BC, to expand the Company’s investor relations services.

The Company and Breakout Capital have, subject to acceptance of filing with the TSX Venture Exchange, entered into an investor relations agreement with a term of one year. Breakout Capital will receive C$5,000 plus GST per month. In addition, the Company has agreed to the granting of options, the particulars of which remain to be negotiated.

Breakout Capital Corp. provides its clients with not only a comprehensive investor relations strategy but also development of a strong line of communication between the client and its shareholders, while increasing market awareness throughout the investment community. The combined 40 years of marketing and information dissemination expertise of its management is what has allowed Breakout Capital to be a leading Investor Relations firm.

Shams Patel has over 7 years of investor and corporate relations experience and has been responsible in the past for general corporate development, corporate communications and shareholder relations, compliance and financing activities. Previous to his investor relation involvement Shams worked at Raymond James Ltd where he held roles in the Compliance and Mutual Fund departments.

On behalf of Sinchao Metals Corp.
